Suicide Prevention for Adults

About SOS for School Staff

Designed for K-12 schools, SOS for School Staff is a professional development course that uses video and interactive learning to teach staff how to help students at-risk through the ACT (Acknowledge, Care, Tell) framework, as well as how school personnel can support themselves and their co-workers.

The Basics

- One-hour, self-guided online training
- Appropriate for elementary, middle and high school staff
- Satisfies many state requirements for suicide prevention training programs
- No backend administration required
- Automatic reports track course completion
- $500 per school (annual license)

All Adults Have a Critical Role

School mental health professionals and student support staff have the most training in identifying and intervening with youth at risk for suicide.

All other school staff are the most likely to interact with students who aren't already identified as needing support.

Suicide Prevention for Adults

Key Learnings

- How to recognize warning signs and risk factors for suicide in children, teens, adults, and ourselves.
