

SOS for School Staff

SOS for School Staff is a one-hour, self-guided online training developed by the creators of SOS Signs of Suicide, a trusted evidence-based suicide prevention program for middle and high school students.

Designed for K-12 schools, this professional development course uses video and interactive learning to teach staff how to help students at-risk through the ACT (Acknowledge, Care, Tell) framework, as well as how school personnel can support themselves and their co-workers.

Key Learnings Include:

- How to recognize warning signs and risk factors for suicide in children, teens, adults, and ourselves.
- How to engage in appropriate, caring conversations with students and adult peers.
- Steps for how to keep a student safe, while connecting them to qualified school staff.
- First-hand accounts from peers on how promoting a safe, connected school environment can reduce suicide risk.
- Stories from teens and school employees on how mental health impacted their schoolwork, attendance, and behaviors.

Benefits:

- 93% feel more prepared to recognize signs of suicide in a student after completing
- 95% report knowing how to connect a student to resources after completing
- Appropriate for elementary, middle, and high school staff
- Asynchronous format easily accommodates professional development
- Administrators receive weekly completion reports; staff receive certificates of completion
